MONOCLE × LOREAK MENDIAN

Monocle x Loreak Mendian

Monocle magazine a été lancé en 2007 pour fournir des informations sur les affaires internationales, le commerce, la culture, le design et bien plus encore. Nous étions convaincus qu’il existait un public de lecteurs ouverts sur le monde, avides d’opportunités et d’expériences au-delà de leurs frontières nationales. Aujourd’hui, Monocle est publié 10 fois par an à partir de nos QG situés à Midori House et Dufourstrasse 90 à Zurich, nous vendons aujourd’hui plus de 80 000 exemplaires par numéro et comptons 24 000 abonnés, un nombre qui ne cesse de croître.

Marlen Jacket

Exclusively for MONOCLE

A full-page photograph of a person walking on a wide, stone-paved pier that extends into a calm sea under a grey, overcast sky. The person is wearing a dark, knee-length coat and a long, light-colored scarf that is blowing in the wind. To the left, there are stone steps leading up from the pier. The overall mood is serene and minimalist.
